Dr. David A. Clark

This Tuesday night is the first night of our FAITH Evangelism Training Fall Semester. You still have time to get involved in this training. Every believer ought to be trained in sharing his or her faith in Jesus Christ. If you have never participated in some kind of evangelism training, I pray that you will think about joining us. If you have already been trained, please consider putting that training into practice for this semester of FAITH.

First Look is this afternoon from 3:45 p.m.-5:45 p.m. First Look is our two-hour seminar especially designed for new members and those interested in becoming members. If you have recently joined or would consider joining our church, please come this afternoon. We will be meeting in Assembly Room 2, which is located on the second floor of the main building.

Where are you going to be next Sunday morning? Please remember our annual ONE DAY joint worship celebration next Sunday, September 2 at 10:00 a.m. I want to urge everyone, even though this will be Labor Day weekend, to give maximum effort to join us for this special worship gathering.

Steve

A photograph of the First Baptist Lafayette church building. The church has a prominent steeple with a dark roof and white trim. The main entrance is a portico with four large white columns and a pediment. The building is constructed of light-colored stone or concrete with red brick accents. There are several large arched windows. In front of the church is a green lawn with some small trees and a black metal fence. The sky is blue with some light clouds.
