Your Response

At the invitation time in each service we offer an opportunity for you to publicly make one of the following decisions...
...to accept Jesus Christ as your personal Savior.
...to join First Baptist by baptism.
...to rededicate your life to Christ.
...to dedicate your life to vocational Christian service.
...to transfer your membership from another Baptist church.
...to join First Baptist from another denomination.

From Our Pastor

Welcome to First Baptist Church. If you are our guest, thank you for joining us today. We would love to be able to get to know you. Take a moment to register as a guest using the registration card attached to the bulletin. Our church exists "to know Him and make Him known." We pray that our worship today helps you to know Him and equips you to make Him known.

Today, I am continuing an extended teaching series called, "I Need a Miracle." God is moving in my own heart as I prepare for this series. As I said last week, I cannot promise you that God is going to give you the miracle that you think you need, but I can promise you that I will pray with you and for you. I am also confident that our Great God can be trusted while we wait.

Our Student Ministry has a big event coming up this next weekend. DiscipleNow is scheduled for this coming weekend. Parents, please encourage your teenager to attend. Students, please invite your friends. Let's make this a great weekend.

I urge you to make a commitment to join us for FAITH Evangelism training this year. We had our orientation meeting on Tuesday, January 8, but you still have time to join us if you let us know by tomorrow.

We all need to reflect on God's grace evident in our Year-End Giving Report. The faithfulness of your giving allowed us to finish the 2012 budget year having exceeded our budget goal by an amazing $780,000. The surplus will allow us to pay down on our debt. In addition, we met and exceeded our Lottie Moon goal by $50,000! I am humbled and grateful for God's provision. Praise the LORD!

Steve

New Group for Adult Women Who Are Victims of Childhood Sexual Abuse

A recent study indicated that 38% of the women interviewed had been sexually abused by an adult or family member by the age of 18. You may think you don't know anyone who has been sexually abused, especially if most of your friends and acquaintances are Christians. But the statistics indicate otherwise: sexual abuse knows no religious or social boundaries. The Wounded Heart is an intensely personal and specific look at this most "soul deadening" form of abuse. Personal because it may be affecting you, your spouse, a close friend or neighbor, or someone you know well at church. And specific because it goes well beyond the general issues and solutions discussed in other books. Dr. Allender's book reaches deep into the wounded heart of someone you know, exploring the secret lament of the soul damaged by sexual abuse and laying hold of the hope buried there by the One whose unstained image we all bear.

This new group begins Wednesday, January 16, at 6:00 p.m. in the Singles Building. Call 593-3664 for more information.
