From Our Pastor

Welcome to First Baptist Church! We welcome those who may be at First Baptist for the first time. We trust that you will find us friendly. More importantly, we pray that God would use this worship time to draw you closer to Him. We would also encourage you to try one of our small-group Sunday School classes. You can find information about these classes and lots of other news about First Baptist at our Information Center.

Today, we will take a moment to have special prayer for our College students returning to school. Every day I think about the significance of 16,000+ students being right around the corner from us at the University of Louisiana. Join me today as we pray for these students.

Tonight, for our 6 p.m. service, we will close out our super summer of special Evening Worship events. First of all, thank you for your enthusiastic support of all that we have done this summer. Tonight, I want to share with you a documentary-style video that was produced to celebrate the 25 years of ministry through Henry Blackaby and his epic work, Experiencing God. If you are a regular listener, or if you have ever visited with me about knowing the will of God, you have heard me reference Blackaby's Experiencing God often. Indeed, this book and study has had a profound impact upon my life. Don't think of it as just a documentary; think of it as testimony of the influence of just one man.

Next week is our annual One Day Celebration. ONE Day is an annual joint worship celebration of our two morning worship services. We will only have the ONE service next Sunday at 10 a.m. For this ONE Sunday, we will not have Sunday School or any evening activities. I want to urge everyone, even though this will be Labor Day Weekend, to give maximum effort to join us for this special worship gathering. We will introduce you to our capital stewardship, prayer, and ministry journey called "All In." Will you be "All In?"

Steve
