At First Baptist Lafayette our core values are taken from Psalm 71:14-19... to preach the same gospel, to the next generation, until all the nations know, and do it all for God's glory.

From Our Pastor

Welcome to worship at First Baptist Church. If you are here today, you have survived another time change. Let’s pray that our experience is well worth it, time change and all. To those who are our guests, thank you for joining us today. Please take a moment to fill out the guest registration card in this bulletin. We invite you to bring this card to the Information Desk in the lobby or place the card in the offering plate as the offering is received this morning.

We are in a season of giving to North American Missions with the Annie Armstrong North American Missions Offering. If you are a regular giver in our church, you have received a special envelope in March’s packet to give to this offering. Also, there are some envelopes in the pews for this offering. This offering supports Southern Baptist missionaries called and appointed to intentionally evangelize and plant churches in North America. Part of the money that is given is being returned to us to help pay our new Hispanic pastor’s salary.

We have teams returning this week from a College Missions Event on the beach, called Beach Reach, and another team returning from India. In addition, we have a team who left Friday to go to Alaska to work with an organization called Alaska Missions. We are blessed to have so many opportunities to partner with others for the Gospel.

At the end of the month, Saturday, March 29, we all have an opportunity with our local missions day that we call, “First Baptist Loves Lafayette” Day. Sign-ups are beginning for this community missions day.

Since I am preaching today on the power of the Word of God, I wanted to give us a tangible opportunity this morning to show our belief in the power of the Word of God. Usually, we receive an annual offering for the Gideons International. We did not do this at all in 2013, so I wanted to make up for that today. For those of you not altogether familiar with this ministry, the Gideons are a group of lay persons committed to the ministry of the distribution of Bibles. At the conclusion of the service, you will have the opportunity to give an offering for the purpose of distributing Bibles across the world.

Bryan College Chorale Concert Thursday at 7:00 p.m.

The Bryan College Chorale from Dayton, Tennessee, will present a concert of sacred choral music on March 13. The group performs a variety of spirituals, classical, and gospel music.

Founded in 1930, Bryan College is a nondenominational, evangelical Christian college named after William Jennings Bryan, the prosecuting attorney in the famous Scopes Evolution Trial. The college educates students to become servants of Christ and make a difference in today’s world. Plan to be here Thursday for this free concert.
