From Our Pastor

Today, we celebrate what God has done in the past year and look forward to what is to come. Thanks for being here for one Sunday morning service at 10:00 a.m. God is pleased, and we are blessed by this gathering of the church. One of the disadvantages of our regular schedule is that we do not get to experience the joy, worship, and decisions that are made in the other service. The truth is that both services are doing well and week by week are very exciting. Since we had this service last year, and including today, we have baptized 80 people. Both services give evidence of God powerfully at work in our church, individual lives, and community. We don't always meet those who attend the opposite service to the one we attend. I hope that you take the opportunity this morning to connect to someone whom you have never met.

If you are our guest, thank you for joining us today. We would love to be able to get to know you. Take a moment to register as a guest using the registration card attached to the bulletin. We invite you to bring your card to the Information Center. We have a gift waiting for you there.

Today, we launch an effort that we are calling, "Do Something." I will be preaching today from Titus 3:14 on this subject. I will also give a working outline of what the rest of this year will look like as we go through a process to determine the next steps in our individual discipleship and our ministry as a church.

Today is also a Fifth Sunday, so we will be carrying out a First Baptist Church tradition by taking a benevolence offering as we exit the Sanctuary this morning.

Steve

Be sure to pick up a Do Something brochure, response card and refrigerator magnet as you leave today. Tables with these items are located near the columns, near the elevator (at the library) and near the covered drive-through. Also, you can go online to www.fbclaf.org/dosomething.
