From Our Pastor

Welcome to First Baptist Church! This is the day that the Lord has made. If you are our guest, please take a moment to register as a guest using the tear-off portion of this bulletin. We ask that you bring this registration card to the Information Desk. We have a gift there for you that we want you to have. You may also place this registration card in the offering plate as we receive our offering this morning.

As I said last week, we are putting our series on "Defining Moments" on hold. We will return to that series on Easter Sunday. God has blessed and spoken to us through our look at these defining moments, and so I look forward to returning to that theme on Easter Sunday.

However, as I considered this year of preaching, I answered the challenge of preaching on the theme of revival. In our "Do Something" conversations of last year, it was obvious that there is a strong yearning among many in our church for something of a series of meetings often called, "revival." I am actively working on that now for 2016. I have a number of calls out to prospective partners in leading us in this time, and hope to be able to announce those plans to you relatively soon when all the pieces fall into place.

In the meanwhile, I do want us to give thought to revival and spiritual awakening. There is no greater need in America today than a revival or spiritual awakening that shakes us and changes us. We have been praying to that end for some while and will continue.

So, over the next weeks I want to help us to think about revival. Today, we will think about revival coming through "Radical Dependence."

Steve

Sermon Notes

Revive us, Oh Lord: Through Radical Dependence Psalm 42:1-11

Four Attitudes that Must Precede Revival:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____

So what?

1. _____ that we really do need revival.
2. _____ God to give you these four attitudes.
3. _____ your own spiritual condition.
4. _____ that God will do something great.
