Thank You
I would like to thank all those who have blessed me with prayers, cards and encouraging words due to my recent surgery. My Sunday School class has been wonderful with also providing meals. There can't be a more caring church body that comes together when one is in need. We are so blessed.

From Our Pastor

Welcome to First Baptist Church. If you are our guest, thank you for joining us today. We would love to be able to get to know you. Take a moment to register as a guest using the registration card attached to the bulletin. At the end of our service, bring your completed card by the Information Center located in the main lobby. We have a gift waiting there for you.

This morning, we are continuing a series called, “Ascend.” This series is an expositional study of Psalms 120-134. Each of these Psalms has the heading “Song of Ascents.” Most believe these are songs worshippers sung as they made their way to Jerusalem for thrice annual special times of worship. If this is so, then we learn a great deal about what was on their hearts as they approached worship and thus understand what should be upon our hearts as we prepare to worship or just give attention to the subject of worship. We will consider one each Sunday for the weeks of this summer. Today, we are studying Psalm 126.

We have been studying together on Sunday nights the book of 1 Corinthians. We have arrived at 1 Corinthians 11, which gives us a teaching on the observance of the Lord’s Supper. In addition to looking at this passage tonight, we will observe the Lord’s Supper.

Finally, men, I want you to be thinking about the next Daniel’s Men Breakfast scheduled for July 19th. We have invited Kelvin Cochran to be our speaker. Kelvin has been in the news in recent years for his Christian faith and Biblical views on marriage which led to his dismissal as the Fire Chief of Atlanta, Georgia.
