From Our Pastor

Welcome to First Baptist Church! We welcome those who may be at First Baptist for the first time. We trust you will find us friendly. More important-ly, we pray God would use this worship time to draw you closer to Him. We would also encourage you to try one of our small-group Sunday School classes. You can find information about these classes and lots of other news about First Baptist at our Information Center.

Do you ever feel like “it’s all about to fall apart.” You have tried to keep it all together. It’s the nation one day. Another day, you feel like your fam-ily is just going to come apart. Before long, you think you can’t hold it to-gether any longer.

I have good news. You are not sup-posed to hold it all together. Jesus is. In this little letter called Colossians, specifically in 1:17, we read, “He is before all things, and by Him all things hold together.”

For the next 10 weeks, we are going to consider much of this letter. We want to understand as much as we can about this idea that “He holds all things together.”

Ladies, have you purchased your ticket for the Refresh Event sched-uled for this Saturday, September 24th? Please help us by purchasing your tickets in advance so we can be prepared for this Saturday. Our Women’s Ministry Team has worked hard to put on a great event. Please join them next Saturday for a great inspirational day.

We have a couple of mission oppor-tunities this month. In your giving this month, please consider a special offering to the Georgia Barnette State Missions Offering. This offer-ing stays in Louisiana to aid the start of churches in Louisiana as well as various ministries of the Louisiana Baptist Convention. We will also be participating in the annual collec-tion of food for the Louisiana Baptist Children’s Home. Please place your food items in the boxes that are available.

Steve

Congratulations

To Nick and Ashley Guidroz in the birth of their son, Andrew Joseph Guidroz.
