From Our Pastor

Welcome to First Baptist Church. If you are our guest, thank you for joining us today. We would love to be able to connect with you. Take a moment to register as a guest using the registration card attached to the bulletin. We invite you to bring this registration card to the Information Center located near the front columns. We have a welcome gift waiting for you there.

I look forward to beginning a new message series today. Our church has grown accustomed to my question, “So What?” at the conclusion of my messages. I fell into this practice a few years ago as the result of making sure that every message ends on a note of action. As I routinely say, “We gather not so much for information, but for inspiration and transformation.”

As we journey toward Easter this year, we are going to pursue what I would call the ultimate “So What” preaching series. My preaching series beginning today through the week after Easter will be “Easter! So What?” We will be considering several questions posed in the Easter accounts in the Bible. Some of the questions come from Jesus. Other questions come from the disciples. A few of the questions come from adversaries of Jesus like Pilate. Many of the questions are our questions. I think you will discover that every question impacts us. That is, all of the questions cause us to ask “So What?”

This week the question comes from two blind men who waited along the road hoping to see Jesus. Jesus asked these men, “What do you want me to do for you?” That is quite a question coming from Jesus. We will consider how the context impacts this question for all of us.

Pray for our children’s choir this afternoon. Our children’s choir has the unique opportunity to sing the National Anthem before the world-famous Harlem Globetrotters at 2:00 p.m. at the Cajun Dome.

To my Church Family,

As I said at the Retirement Celebration, I love First Baptist Church. Marianne and I have been members for 50 years, and it has been my wonderful privilege to serve you as Minister of Education and Outreach for the past 18 years. With this in mind, please understand that words cannot adequately express my thoughts and feelings.

Your expressions of love through offering, cards, calls, emails, texts, gifts, prayers, and the Retirement Celebration are deeply appreciated. I am overwhelmed by your generosity and kindness.

Thank you First Baptist Lafayette. You are a blessing to me and my family, and you will always be in my heart. I am looking forward to our church's future, knowing that God is at work. The best days are ahead.
